

Personalized Learning Via Student Advisement

Relationships

Stacie Loftin, College and Career Coach

Groves High School, Garden City, GA, 31408

Keys to Success

○ Personalization Foundation Strategy

- Advisement Groups

○ Essential Data Tools

- Performance Indicators
- Student Surveys

The Personalized Learning Environment

○Need:

- Robert W. Groves High School
 - Building Community

○Purpose:

- Establishing Positive Relationships
 - Advisor / Advisee

○Organization Strategies:

- SLC Based Advisement

The Personalized Learning Environment

- CHANCE Supporting Roles
 - Grant Project Director
 - Site Administration
 - College & Career Coach
 - Transition Coach
- Roadblocks
 - Creating Faculty Buy-In
 - Developing Student Understanding
- Overall Impact
 - Building on Success

WHAT “ADVISEMENT” IS NOT

STUDENT ADVISMENT Will ...

- Improve relationships in the building
- Develop a greater sense of belonging to the school
- Improve communication
- Develop advocacy
- Provide a time to dignify the student experience
- Promote a sense of school as a “safe haven” for students
- Create a “College & Career Ready” mindset

SAMPLE ADVISEMENT TOPICS

- Conflict Resolution
 - Parents, Teacher, Classmates, & Employers
- Time Management
 - Control Your Future
- Revising 4-Year Plans
 - Where do I stand
- Learning Styles
 - What's the impact
- SAT & ACT Preparation
 - What they are and why they are important
- Communication Skills
 - How to Listen
 - Creating Solutions

Overall Impact

- Building on 3 years of SLC/CHANCE success!

